

Extensive use of precast elements in the project rating over 68% of its structure which dramatically reduce environmental nuisance due to onsite construction works

Extensive use of metal formwork in typical floor to replace use of timber

Adopt hard-paving construction - Reduce muddy water and fugitive dust

Totally enclosed refuse chute with built-in automatic water spraying system

Water spraying as dust suppression measure for haul road and site area
- Make good use of treated water

Promote hydroponics onsite by using waste conduit

Waste Reborn Scheme - Erection of green wall by making use of waste material onsite

Erection of additional noise screening tarpaulin on hoarding